Women’s Studies and Gender Studies @ANU: A Celebration of Professor Jill Julius Matthews’ Career
Thursday 20 November 2014

12:30 Welcome: Dr Fiona Jenkins (Convenor, Gender Institute, ANU)

12:35 p.m. to 3:15, Professor Matthews’ Activism, Scholarship, Teaching and Legacy, Hedley Bull 2

12:35-2.00: Jill Matthews: activist and scholar
Chair: Prof. Desley Deacon (Emeritus Professor of History, ANU)
Speakers: Prof. Sue Sheridan (Emeritus Prof. Flinders University)
Prof. Ann Curthoys (Honorary Associate, University of Sydney)
Prof. Joy Damousi (Melbourne University)
Prof. Penny Russell (University of Sydney)

2:00 to 2:30 Afternoon Tea, Hedley Bull foyer

2:30-3:30: Jill Matthews: teaching and legacy
Chair: Prof. Angela Woollacott (Manning Clark Professor of History, ANU)
Speakers: Dr. Helen Keane (Senior Lecturer in School of Sociology, ANU)
Rebecca Preston (current 4th year Honours student in School of History, ANU)

4:00-5:00 Gender Studies and Film: Jill Matthews’ contributions to Australia’s screen history
Theatrette, National Film and Sound Archive
Speaker: Mr. Michael Loebenstein (current CEO of NFSA): welcome and address on the significance of Jill Matthews’ contributions to the NFSA’s research mandate

Jill Matthews’ contribution to film history
Chair: Assoc. Prof. Carolyn Strange (ANU)
Speakers: Ms Meg Labrum (senior curator, National Film and Sound Archive)

Action! Jill Matthews on Blue Movies
Speaker: Ms Christine Cummings (research officer, National Film and Sound Archive, Scholars and Artists in Residence program, NFSA): Introduction and recollections

Video Clip: Jill Matthews’ presentation in the NFSA’s scholars and artists in residence programme.

Musical Homage
Performers: Ms Fiona Fraser (Jill Matthews’ PhD supervisee) and Carolyn Strange

Response by Professor Matthews

5:00 to 6:00 Reception National Film and Sound Archive
Optional dinner at own expense at nearby restaurant.

This event is free but please register by Friday 14th November via Eventbrite:

Enquiries: Katy Wilson P: 6125 7050, E: Katy.Wilson@anu.edu.au