Working for Women Symposium

Programme

8.30-9.00  Registration
9.00-9.15  Official Welcome (Carolyn Strange)
9.15-10.45  Panel 1 (chaired by Sally Parkin)
    Diana Jeske (Monash) Women and the Opportunities of Epistolary Exchange: An Examination of Late Eleventh-and Early Twelfth-century Latin Love Letters
    Sarah Randles (ANU) Adam Delved and Eve Span: Gender and Textile Production in the Middle Ages
    Janet Hadley Williams (ANU) ‘My gudame wes a gay wyf’, A late Fifteenth-Century Career Path?
10.45-11.15  Morning tea
11.15-12.15  Keynote address, Prof. Constant Mews (chaired Julie Hotchin)
12.15-1.00  Lunch
1.00-2.30  Panel 2 (chaired Mark Dawson)
    Merridee Bailey (ANU) Working in the City of London: the activities of women and apprentices in the sixteenth century
    Nicholas Brodie (UTAS) ‘any Man or Woman being hole & mighty in body’: women’s work under Tudor vagrancy law
    Chris Wallace (ANU) ‘All women are ambitious naturallie’: The Life and Works of Christopher Marlowe as a Source for Perceptions of Women & Work in Elizabethan England
2.30-3.00  Afternoon tea
3.00-4.30  Panel 3 (chaired Merridee Bailey)
    Sally Parkin (Independent Scholar) Continuity and Customary Law: Tools for the economic and cultural empowerment of Welsh Women
    Sophie Scott-Brown (ANU) Liberated Men and Condemned Women: Autobiography in Public and Political Role Making in Revolutionary France
    Helen Pringle (UNSW) The Gait of the Soul: Elisa von der Recke and the work of reason
4.30-4.45  Respondent (Prof. Margaret Jolly and Prof. Constant Mews)
4.45-5.00  Close

For further information contact Dr Tania Colwell  Ph: 6125 4714  or  E: Tania.Colwell@anu.edu.au