

0800-0900	WEDNESDAY registration open												RHA Breakfast (venue TBC)
0900-1030	Theatre	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6	Room 7	Room 8	Room 9	Room 10	Room 11	Room 12	Room 13	Room 14
	Roundtable	Roundtable	Digital History and Collective Biography	Frontier Massacres	The Global and the Intimate: Humanitarianism, Peacekeeping and Genocide	Interpreting and Making Collections Accessible	War and Post-war Crises	The Power of Popular Culture	Biographies of Prominent and Ambitious Women	Totalitarianism and Nationalism in China and Japan	Buildings, Sacred Space and Worship	Settlement and Environment	Environmental Consciousness	Prisoners of War and Post-war Justice	Politics and Strategy
1	Knowledges of the Deep Human Past Chair: Professor Lynette Russell Participants: Ann McGrath, Laura Rademaker, Ben Silverstein, Aileen Walsh	Podcasting and public scholarship Panel: Anna Clark, James Goldrick, Honae Cuffe	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair
Neville D Buch Small is big: Scaling the map for Brisbane persons and institutions 1825-2000			Lyndall Ryan After Myall Creek: Frontier massacres over the next ten years	Agnieszka Sobocinska The intimacy of global humanitarian history	Libby Stewart Collecting Christine Milne and Barry Jones: The significance of scale	Bernard Attard Scaling up: The Queensland Loans Affair re-visited	Jonathan Anuk Locating knowledge: Miss Grundy, Archie comics, and a North American childhood consensus	Kim Kemmis The sexual harassment of the soprano: One woman's experience	Troy Gillan hanging young hearts and minds: Education reform in occupied Japan 1945-52	Clara Geoghegan Sacred Heart Cathedral Bendigo: Catholicism on the social and geographic landscape	Imogen Wegman The soggy paths to colonial settlement	Daniel Rothenburg The global 'ecological revolution' in rural Victoria	Bryce Abraham, Kate Ariotti Scaling heroisms: Australian POWs and military honours during the World Wars	Eleanor N Morecroft Military history as political statement: The case of William Napier (1785-1860)
Karen Agutter A mass of individuals			Thomas Rogers The Coniston Massacre in the context of the Australian frontier	Caroline Schneider Forcible child transfer - A global phenomenon illustrated with the Yazidi Genocide	Vanessa Finney baya-ngara (read/speak knowledge) at the Australian Museum Research Library	Brendan Scott RIC Butler : radicalism, disloyalty and confrontation on the Queensland Homefront 1914-1918	Fiona F Fraser Paderewski and the music lover: Music and the modern self	Louise Scott-Deane Stella Deakin and the challenges of modern womanhood: From scientist to hostess	Shan Windscrip Agendas of the self: Ideology and subjectivity in diaries of Maoist China	Ailson Flett Christchurch controversies: An altar and a cathedral	Rebecca Jones Englishmen (or mad dogs): The physical and emotional effects of extreme weather	Emma Lightermoet, Sue Jackson, Richard Baker The history of adaptation responses to saltwater intrusion in Kakadu National Park	Kristen Alexander 'Touched the face of God': Faith and airmen prisoners of war	Honae H Cuffe 'a carefully weighed plan with adequate safeguards': Securing US Cooperation in WWII
3			Helen Bones Excel to MySQL: Digital refinements to The Expatriate Myth	Alycia Nevalainen A microhistory of the Murdering Gully Massacre	Kimberley Doyle The peace paradox: Australian memories of peacekeeping in the Pacific region	Emily Catt The good, the bad, and the weird: Government photographs from the NAA	Mchelle T McKeough The scale of crisis: A civil response to Depression Era conditions in WA	James Findlay The invasion will be televised: Screening the frontier in 1978	Nicole Moore 'The war has swallowed up my boyfriends': Dorothy Hewett refracting total war	Benjamin Garvey Commemorating SARS trauma as moment of national-conception: Hong Kong Democrats' new rhaksm	Catherine Schieve Construction and worship at the Great Stupa	Margaret Cook The promise of 'immense opportunity' in Central Queensland 1923-1934	Georgina Fitzpatrick When scale overwhelms: One man's archive and Australia's war crimes trials	Ross Mahoney Air power studies or the Airfix school of history?
1030-1100	Morning tea
1100-1230	Roundtable	Memorialisation and Affective Heritage	Prosopography: Slavery and Criminal Justice	Histories of Protection	Historiography and Scale: Big, Deep, and Micro-histories	Visual Arts Collections: Histories and Case Studies	Strikes and Lockouts	Economic Ideas and Policy	Abortion Provision and Family Planning	Diplomatic Histories: Australia, China, and Japan	Materiality and Belief 2: Mediating Spiritual Change	Indigenous Environmental Knowledge	Saltwater Histories	Colonial Warfare in New Zealand and New South Wales	World War II and Contemporary War Culture
1	Discovering history at scale through Trove Panel: Katherine Bode, Garrick Hitchcock, Mark Finnane, Helen Morgan, Hilary Berthon	Alexandra Dellios Challenging heritage narratives: The potential of community-initiated migration monuments in Australia.	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair
Alanna Dargan Camp Gallipoli: Australia's commercialised public memory			Emma D Watkins Nineteenth-century juvenile convicts and their post-transportation offending	Ashlen Francisco From protection to welfare: The 1937 Select Committee Inquiry and Aboriginal autonomy	Elise Bohan Why understanding Big History matters	Michael Molnard The tale of two regional art collections	Carol D Corless 1937 Castlemaine Brewery dispute: 'Valour among the vats'	Nathan Wise The makings of the Australian moral economy	Branka Bogdan Yugoslav family planning, 1952-1974: Social policy and healthcare on an international scale	Tiger Zhifu Li From Enemy to Ally? Australia's diplomatic relations with China (1901 to 1941)	Laura Rademaker The glasses were the message: Recognition, disguise and materiality in Tiwi histories	Jessica White Plant histories across millennia	Joy McCann Ocean biography: Writing the life story of the Southern Ocean	Saul Deane Spearing Governor Phillip: Collins Cove the place, within Manly Cove the space	Rachel Harris 'Soldier struck': Regulation of female morality on the South Australian home front
Kate Rivington In its midst: An analysis of one hundred southern-born opponents of slavery			Skye Krichauff 'Protecting the Protectors': The incorporation of colonial intermediaries into Aboriginal political intrigues	Amy Way 'Time, time, and yet more time': Investigating antiquity in 19th century Australia	Judith A Pugh He was despised. Re-examining Robert Menzies' contribution to the Australian visual arts	Laila Elmooos 'Interesting, humorous, thrilling': The Great Strike of 1917 on film	Ben Huf Imperial accounting and economic knowledge: A pre-history of 'the economy'	Clare Parker The British Abortion Act (1967): Biography of a statute	Yoshie Takamitsu-Ogura Japanese public diplomacy and media before the Second World War	Josephine Laffin New wine in old wineskins	Edward Ryan Three leaves: Cross-cultural plant knowledge in north-west Victoria	David Harris Chinese fish hawkers, commercial fishers and fish curers in colonial Victoria	John S Connor Climate and war in NSW, 1788-1841	Amanda Laugesen Australian troop magazines of the Second World War: Language and Identity
3		Peter Read Memories after Pinochet: Uncertain memorials in an uncertain world	Alana Piper Partners-in-crime: Co-offending networks in interwar Melbourne	Patricia Curthoys The church and the Town Housing Programme	Stephen Foster Microhistory, fiction and the space between	Amanda Harris, Matt Poll Aboriginal performances and touring art works under assimilation: Historian and curator reflect	Phoebe Kelloway Three working-class individuals in three major industrial disputes in Australia, 1928-1930	Nicholas Brown 'Almost always difficult and often cruel': J.G. Crawford and the consolidation of development economics in Australia	Barbara Baird The life of the law of abortion in South Australian public hospitals	Narrelle Morris 'Set an impossible task: Sir William Flood Webb and the IMTFE, 1946-48	Constant Mews Sensory cultures and the communication of belief	Lilian Pearce Articulating the unspeakables in ecological restoration	Rohan J Lloyd Brief history of a 'weird starfish': Crown-of-Thorns and the Barrier Reef, 1960-1975	Kristyn Harman Soldiers transported from New Zealand to Tasmania during the New Zealand Wars	Abbie S. Hartman 'War, war never changes': Military history, video games, and accidental 'historians'
1230-1330	Lunch
1330-1500	Combined Roundtable (GLAM and 'Green Stream')	Remembering and Representing Rights	Lacunae, Liminal Zones and Limitations: Historical Craft & Biographical Method	Truth and Reconciliation	Long-scale histories	Apocalypse, Precarity, Dispossession: Early Anxieties	Capitalists and Workers	Enterprise and Efficiency	Marrying History	Knowledge Cultures: India, China, and the Malay Peninsula	Greek Histories: Ancient and Modern	Ideology, War and Terror	The Interwar Period	The Soldiers' Experience
1		Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair
Jon Piccini Discouraging disclosures: Australians and the International Year for Human Rights, 1968		Kiera Lindsey 'Factually informed but imaginatively conceived': Speculating upon biography	Charlotte Lloyd Reconciliation action plans in Australian organisations: A decade in review	Andrew Bonnell Writing the history of revolutions in Germany	Ryan W Strickler A beginning in the end: The sixth-century Byzantine apocalyptic revival	Thomas A Mackay Questions of scale in writing new histories of Australian capitalism	Catherine Bishop Local business, global phenomenon: Putting Sydney's businesswomen in an international context	Marian Lorrison Sex and the New Woman: Australian colonial marriage under the microscope	Rukhsana Ifthikhar Indian culture and civilization under Muslims in pre-modern times	Peter Londay Local and international at the sanctuary of Delphoi	Evan Smith, Anastasia Dukova ASIO and Irish republicanism in Australia during the 'Troubles'	Mary Sheehan The forgotten victims: Spanish Flu 1919	Pauline Georgelin Frenchmen in the AIF - a national and transnational study
2	Museums and the Anthropocene Panel: Jlda Andrews, Leah Lui-Chivzhe, George Main, Cameron Muir, Jenny Newell, Libby Robin	Jordy Silverstein Innocence, saviours, and rights: Memories of child refugees in Australian policy discourse	Jennifer McLaren Lives and spaces: The scale of biography	Fiona L Davis Finding the every-day on a global scale: Tackling Canada's TRC	Clinton Fernandes Instruments of statecraft in Australian foreign policy	Nathaniel IMT Cutter Emotions of uncertainty: The precarious experience of Stuart-era Barbary diplomats	Michael PR Pearson Who are the mechanics? Historically defining Australia's automotive repair trade	Claire Wright, Simon Ville, David Merritt The giants of King Street: Co-operation and competition among a business elite	Deborah Nance Making marriage national: Modernity and religion	Xue Zhang Foreign geography and the studies of Kinjyang in nineteenth-century China	Markos P. Carelos Greece and the Treaty of Lausanne. An epilogue to World War I?	Diane Kirkby Making Australians 'boiling mad': The Fulbright controversy over Australia's Vietnam War	Darren Mitchell Australia's Anzac Day dawn service: A fresh look at its origins	Ernest (Ben) E B Morris The end of an ANZAC tradition but not the deception
3		Anna Johnston Remembering the Myall Creek Massacre: Eliza Hamilton Dunlop and settler poetics	Donna Lee Brien Writing women back into true crime narratives	Anne Maree Payne Contested terrain: History, politics and the Bringing Them Home Oral History Project	Joel Zapata Long scale history in the North American plains and the Mexican people	Jane Fitzgerald Spirited away: Mobility as violence during the Wars of the Three Kingdoms	Jack Fahey Tensions in interwar Australian encounters with the General Motors Empire	André Brett 'This light has proved very successful': Illuminating Australasian railways with pintsch gas	Vicki K Tsanaktidis Inter marriage, honour and shame in Australia; 1970-2000	Wei Wen Wilbert Wong Richard Winstedt: A case study of colonial knowledge in the Malay peninsula	Andonis Piperoglou Making 'Modern Athens': The contours of Australian philhellenism	Daniel Andres Elias The great betrayal: A critique of mainstream liberal theory	Riley Buchanan Imagination, reality and Picasso's Guernica	Stephanie James 'Disloyal' doctors in South Australia 1914-1918: the long-term consequences of wartime experiences
1500-1530	Afternoon tea
1530-1700	Keynote Address Mark McKenna (University of Sydney)

THURSDAY registration open
Keynote Address Claire Anderson (University of Leicester)
0800-1030
0900-1030
1030-1100	Morning tea
1100-1230	Roundtable	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6	Room 7	Room 8	Room 9	Room 10	Room 11	Room 12	Room 13	Room 14
		Roundtable	The Scale of Biography for Indigenous History	Modern Histories of Representation and Self-determination	Microhistory and Emotions	Politics, Gender and Emotions	Nationalism and Decolonisation	Land and Colonisation	A Big History of an Intimate Subject: Historicising Domestic Violence	Legal Histories of Race and Whiteness	Sports History 1	Animals in History	Home on the Land	Oceanic Connections	Epistolary Windows on the Past
			Chair Tom Griffiths	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair Marie-Louise McDerrett	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair
1	Object Lessons: Australian Journey - The Story of a Nation in Twelve Objects Panel: David Arnold, Frank Bongiorno, Rae Frances, Katrina Grant, Peter Read, Jayne Regan, Bruce Scates		Ekpeth Martha American Indian biographies and the pre-1898 US empire	Amy Thomas Self-determination, bilingual education, and the foundation of the Strelley community school	Karen Fillewood Impact at sea: Societal sensibilities in late Victorian Australia	Karen Downing Weeping politicians: The power and contingency of men's tears	Jatinder Mann The redefinition of citizenship in Australia and New Zealand, 1950s-1970s: Comparisons	Stephanie A Johnston Building the case for world heritage nomination of the Mount Lofty Ranges	Zora Simic 'Behind closed doors': Early feminist histories of domestic violence	Peter Prince The Chinese always belonged	Richard Naughton The advent of open tennis. What has changed over 50 years?	Gonzalo Villanueva The emergence of animal protection in colonial Victoria, 1870-1881	Lauren Robinson 'Alone with the sky and the wind': Female artists in colonial Victoria	Benjamin Sacks 'Who's for Tonga?' Tongan visitors and Australian escapism in summer 1932-33	Cathy Perkins Zora Cross: A household name
2		Humanities and Social Sciences Data Enhanced Virtual Laboratory Panel TBA	Kate Fullagar Promises and pitfalls in Indigenous biography: An 18th-century Raritanian case study	Mick Warren The 'Adam Goodes Fire' and the myth of white victimhood	Penny Russell Meanings of a silk visite: Love, theft and commerce in colonial Sydney	Noah Rieaman Transgender inclusion and Australia's failed Sexuality Discrimination Bill	Benjamin T Jones An Australian republic and decolonisation	Edwyna Harris, Summer La Croix Did speculation in land pay off for British investors in Adelaide? 1835-1850	Ann Curthoys Twenty-first century histories of domestic violence	Mark Jones Delegalization of slavery in Himalayan Kumaon, 1815-1843	Christopher B. Yardley Cashing in - The changing emphasis of sport on postage stamps	Nancy Cushing Australian rabbits travelling 'home': The frozen meat trade in the 1890s	Rachel R Goldlust The New Woman goes home; unsettling stories of women on the land	Margaret Allen 'White supremacy imperilled'	Graham Hannaford 'Shall we go - what do the newspapers say?'
3			Shino Konishi A partial view: Challenges in reconstructing early Aboriginal lives	Anemarie McLaren Sweet Country and history, imagining and listening	Jared van Duinen The return of Roger Tichborne: Microhistory and an Australian colonial identity	Laura Cook 'This is a people's issue': Australia and the abdication of Edward VIII	Carmel Pascale The persistence of settler colonial culture in twentieth century Australian nationalism	William G Peart Courteen evidence to the younger ideal in Victoria in the 1860s	Catherine Kevin Zoom out, zoom in. Feminist lenses on the history of domestic violence	Nadia Rhook The scale of racial-linguistic belonging: Revisiting the dictation test from 1890s Melbourne	Bruce Coe Fifty years on from the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City	Claire Brennan The empire of pigsticking: Hunting connections between India and Australasia	Jane McCabe Land chains: The burden of inheritance	Michael Davis Scaling the Greg Denier archive: From local encounters, to Pacific-wide possibilities	Brad Buller Nostalgia, collective memory and the death of Graham Perkin, Age editor, 1966-1975
1230-1330	Lunch	Open Forum: AHA Conference - future formats discussion Chair: Lynette Russell Discussants: Martin Crotty, Nancy Cushing, Sam Furnhy, Kirsten McKenzie
1330-1500	Roundtable	Roundtable	Indigenous Biographies	Memorialising Whiteness?	Convicts, Soldiers and Settlers	Creating Exhibitions: From Local to International Scale	Memorials, Commemoration and National Identity	Trade and Transnational Networks	Sexuality and Military Service	Japan in the Cold War / The Cold War in Japan	Sports History 2	Urban Water: Landscapes, Infrastructures, Bodies	Colonial and Trans-imperial Environmental Histories	Mining, Mining Technology and the Environment	Frontiers and Frontlines: The Emotional Labour of Letters
			Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair Benjamin Jones	Chair	Chair	Chair Tomoko Akami	Chair	Chair Heather Goodall	Chair	Chair	Chair
1	The Future of Migration History in Australia Chair: Joy Damousi Panel: Jayne Persian, Andonik Piperoglou, Alexandra Dellos, Karen Schamberger	Practical Advice for the Non-Academic Job Search Chair: Melanie Burkett Panel: Blake Singley, Evan Smith, Lachlan Clohesy, Tina Parolin	Shauna Bostock-Smith From colonisation to my generation: An Aboriginal family history over several generations	Elizabeth Miller Making the Battle Creek marker: Representations of James Cook in Australia, 1920s - 1930s	Tamsin O'Connor Colonial soldiers and the political economy of runaways: Newcastle 1804-1821	Amber Evangelista Negotiating narratives: Stories of women in policing	Karen Fox Individual lives on a national scale: Heroes, monuments, and historical narratives	William Coleman Was Federation integrating or fracturing? The impact of the 1901 customs union	David J Longley Reporting on romance: WWI African American soldiers and publicized interracial sex	Takashi Saikawa Returning to the international cCommunity: UNESCO and postwar Japan	Erin Prince Japan's 'Witches of the East' - lost chance for female sporting revolution	Andrea Gaynor More-than-human Australian cities in drought	Mikael Pierre Seeking the Australian terror: French models and the 'tyranny of environment'	Kenneth G McQueen Scale and style in the history of mineral discovery and development	Lachy Paterson, Angela C Wannalla He Rieta Aroha: Languages of emotion on the colonial frontier
2			Laurence Allen Charlotte and Margaret: Exploring the lives of two nineteenth century Aboriginal Women	Peter Hooker 'Upon this sacred ground': Representations of James Cook in Australia, 1920s - 1930s	Charlotte Macdonald Settler colonialism in uniform: Scaling the 19th century redcoat world	Samantha Leah STEAM the Museum	Carolyn Holbrook The unsentimental nation: Early commemoration of the Australian Federation	Peter Gibson Supply networks in Chinese-Australian furniture production, 1880-1930	Patricia O'Brien Virtual war hero, indicted sex offender: Enri Flynn's wartime persona shattered	Goro Fujita Preventing communist revolutions: Internal security and the origins of the US-Japan Alliance	Anthony Condon Play up and play the game: quantifying the language of WWI cricket	Ruth Morgan Water for gold: The politics of urban water provision to WA's hinterland	Julie McIntyre Civilising nature? Settler horticulturalists writing to European scientists in 1840s Australia	Matthew S. Churchward, Peter Quinn Sluicing for gold by Bellgapp Hill: Examining a distinctive Victorian mining landscape	Alexia Moncrieff Godforsaken kangaroo country: Disabled British First World War veterans' perceptions of Australia
3			Alec O'Halloran Setting parameters for the biography of an Aboriginal artist: Mind your step!	Chris Brown Local history for social change? Fair-right politics, everyday nationalism and Indigenous perspectives	Patricia Downes Well travelled: The scale of military convict transportation to Western Australia	Robert Eales The case of the new National Boer War Memorial in Canberra	Miesje de Vogel Australia, the Allies, and reciprocal aid	Shirleene Robinson Emotions and loyalties: Oral histories of Australian lesbian military service, 1960s-1980s	Takafumi Arai Japan's Stance toward nuclear weapons in the late 1960s	Marie-Louise McDermott Can we counter dementia, depression, loneliness and inactivity with sporting memories?	Emily O'Gorman Leaky swamps: A more-than-human history of containment and recalibration from Toowoomba, Queensland	Peter Crabb Environmental changes in colonial Australia as seen by a contemporary newspaper reporter	Leonie Knapman, Stephen Imrie Oil shale mining in Australia	Jaclyn Hopkins The emotional labour of Australian nurses' condolence letters during WW1
1500-1530	Afternoon tea
1530-1700	Roundtable	Roundtable	Biography and Race	Histories of Place and Belonging	Colonial and Imperial Histories	Digital GLAM	Remembering ANZAC	Revisionist Histories: Ancient and Archaeological	Intimacy, Risk, and Reflection	Decolonising Asia	Sports History 3	The Anthropocene and Planetary Health	Conservation sensibilities	Mining, Miners and Mining Society	Searching for Personal Connections in the Built
			Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair Bruce Coe	Chair	Chair	Chair	Chair
1	What is International History Now? Chair: Glenda Sluga Panel: Sarah Dunstan, Beatrice Wayne, Claire Wright, Ben Huf	Dunera Lives: A Visual History Panel: Jay Winter, Seumas Spark, Carol Bunyan, Susannah Helman	Michael Francis 'Illicit' Challenges to White Australia on Bathurst Island Mission, 1928-38	Ryan Stewart 'King Billy Dead' - Remembering the so-called last of their tribe	Lloyd Carpenter 'A letter from Bendigo'. A Nonwegan quartz miner in Otago	Brett Leavy CyberDreaming - communicating language, culture and identity through multi-user VR based simulation	Ian Hodges Returned soldiers of the First World War, the view from Wagga Wagga	Floro Quibuyen 'Wait for the westwind': History lessons for archaeologists debating a prehistoric voyage	Colin R. Johnson The lesser intimacies	Heather Goodall Decolonisation up close and personal: Australia, India and Indonesia, 1939-1950	Christopher Olewicz Leone E Nerostellato: Local and national identity in Italian football, 1904-1921	Ted Deveson Insect indicators of the Anthropocene	Cheryl Glowrey The scale of influence - the public servant and the national park	Robin McLachlan Australasian miners response to Klondike Goldfield regulations, bureaucracy and corruption, 1897-99	Lauren Piko Towards an imperial logic of urban authenticity: Canberra and Milton Keynes
2			William Scates Frances Thinking thinking: The extended mind of a race scientist in NSW 1839-1840	Kathryn Wells Aborigines trading artefacts in NSW - local histories and global consciousness, 1860s-1920s	Toby Nash At water's edge: Wharfedale excurty and imperial insecurity in British American port-cities	Blake Singley 'In living colour': The history and future of Identity Magazine	Martin A Crotty Gallipoli 1965: The unhappy pilgrimage	Pat Wheatley The 'special' Eleusinian mysteries of 303 BC	Clayton Koppes Hostility, heroism, and hope: American AIDS from 1981 to the present	Sarah Kennedy Bates Growth miriades and middle-class prosperity: A multi-scalar view of Indonesian economic life	Michael A Sheret Golf in times of war	James Dunk 'Our common future': Temporality and history in planetary health	Jayne Regan Thoreauvian retreat or tourist trap?: Writing on and about Green Island, 1920-1960	Nicole Davis A world in miniature: exploring the globe within Australia's nineteenth-century arcades
3			Malcolm Allbrook Robert John Sholl (1819-1886): 'Protection' Pilbara-style	Jennifer Jones From 'Mohican' to 'Coranderk' Aboriginal Station: 'Taungunung' people and place-based history	Anna L McKay 'Allowed to die': Prison hulks, convict corpses and the scandal of 1847	Rowan Light Perspectives on Anzac: Memory, violence, and identity in Australian and New Zealand	Paul Sendzük 'If I knew then what I know now': Australia's response to AIDS	Jonathan Sale Southeast Asian histories: Evolution of labour laws in post-colonial Philippines and Malaysia	Tilly Hinton Big places, small stories: Uncovering intimate histories of massive urban infrastructure	Janine Kitson Henry Gold's photography: Protecting Australia's wild and beautiful landscapes	Robert Ashley Phillip Davies, the Californian hydraulic nozzle and the Klondike Gold Mining Company	Max Holleran Tourism, European integration, and Europe's two peripheries: Post-Franco Spain and post-socialist Bulgaria
1700-1800	AHA AGM Copland Theatre
1900-late	Conference Dinner National Museum of Australia

0800-1030	FRIDAY no registration required
0900-1030	Keynote Address Mary Lewis (Harvard University) combined keynote with Rudé Conference on French History and Civilisation
1030-1100	Morning tea (combined with Rudé conference)
1100-1230	Theatre	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6	Room 7	Room 8	Room 9	Room 10	Room 11	Room 12	Room 13	Room 14
	Roundtable	Inquiring into Empire from Sentence to Globe	National Belonging and Individual Lives	Re-imagining the Archive	Life Writing and Textual Fragments	Specimens and Artefacts	Gender, Class and Domesticity	Archives & Redress: Historical Justice and Disruptions of Institutional Narratives of 'Care'	Education Policy and the Teaching of History	Tourism Advertising and Radio	Community Networks and Institutions in Australia	Carceral Histories	Papua in the International Context of the 1950s-1960s	The North in the National Imagination: Disparities of Scale
1		Chair Lisa Ford Inquiring into commissions – Early conclusions from the Inquiring into Empire Project	Chair Kate Bagnall Chinese Australian families and the legacies of colonial naturalisation	Chair Barry Kennerk Who writes history? Archivists and the myth of passive custodianship	Chair Ana Paula Estrada de Isoibi Documenting microhistories through artist books	Chair Hilary Howes Archaeology, artefacts, archives: Global journeys of Lapita pots/herds from the Bismarck Archipelago	Chair Paula Jane Byrne Women and the construction of contact history	Chair Jan Boyle Redress, intersectionality and historical justice: A holistic view of child maltreatment	Chair Dorothy Kass Visions for school education in Australia between the wars	Chair Andrew Cardow Cruising through advertising: a survey of cruise ship advertising, 1980-2008	Chair Peter Woodley Social as well as economic transactions: Credit in Dubbo's rural economy, 1880-1930	Chair Tim Causer Jeremy Bentham, the panopticon prison, and New South Wales, 1802-3	Chair Emma Kluge Free West Papua! : How an unknown Pacific-territory birthed an international protest movement	Chair Lyndon T Megarrity The centre merges with the periphery: The Commonwealth and northern Australia
2	Animals Count Chair: Libby Robin Panel members: Nancy Cushing, Andrea Gaynor, David Harris, Rohan Lloyd, Julie McIntyre, Ruth Morgan, Emily O'Gorman	Chair Kirsten McKenzie Political removal in an age of war and revolution	Chair Sophie Couchman New questions about the enlistment of Chinese Australians during World War I	Chair Victoria Haskins, Kathy Travis 'Whose story is it?': Aboriginal voices in history and research	Chair Ryia RO Ordynat Building identities from scraps: How should we interpret 19th century Australian scrapbooks?	Chair Anne Coote Making friends from the fringe: Networking and the natural history specimen trade	Chair Melanie Burkett When class equals worth: Resisting working-class emigrants to 1830s New South Wales	Chair David McGinnis Institutional histories / cultures / stories / practices	Chair Naomi Wolfe, Nell Musgrove Metanarratives and microhistories: Teaching Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history	Chair Jennifer Bowen Small signals in a mass medium: The intimacy of early Australian radio	Chair Helen Monro 'So valuable and useful an institution': Mechanics' institutes in colonial Victoria	Chair Katherine A Roscoe Connecting the colony: Carceral islands and the colonisation of Australia, 1839-1903	Chair Murray Chisholm Aro of Rupununda: The last man hanged in colonial PNG	Chair Russell McGregor People the North
3		Chair David Roberts 'Private slanders and irrelevant facts': Revisiting the evidence of the Bigge Reports	Chair Emma Bellino 'Australian girl became an alien': Reporting married women's nationality	Chair Catherine Dewhurst Migrant newspaper evidence: Reconstructing life stories from the silent history of L'italiano	Chair Katrina Dernelley Small moments: How to study home in the central Victorian goldfields (1851-1869)	Chair Lauren Bourke On the public record: Challenging narratives of Winton Youth Training Centre	Chair Adele Nye Teaching history in Australian universities: Multiple dimensions of a rich discipline	Chair Josette Wells Conceptualising tourism marketing history: Research methodology for Australia's tourism history	Chair Roland S Wettenhall Let's not forget the intimate details of friendly societies	Chair Alexis Bergantz Lies in limbo: French bagnards and the case for freedom in Australia	Chair Nicholas Ferns Colonialism as foreign aid: Australian developmental policy in Papua New Guinea, 1945-1975	Chair Patrick T White North Queensland municipal activism: A regional voice is heard across the nation
1230-1330	Lunch and conference close
1330-1700	TOURS (details to come)

Copyright Agency Bursary
Workshop